Since my last, we have had another of those jame one of which I briefly described to you. His Excellency gave a terce at his quarters on Friday evening, and a pretty general squeeze it was—very much like that at Senator Upham's. We enjoyed the sight of some dozen legislative dignitaries, forgetting the cases and managuring of politics, and leading forth as many fair daughters of the Green Hills to the merry Whigs and Locos, alike oblivious of the squabbles which had divided them in the Stone Caswas made to politics, it was only to crack a joke at the juxtaposition of combatants, who had "made day hideous" with their valorous encounters in the arena of political warfare. If it were not for and occasion like this now and then, where we can fling away vickering and strife for a season, and meet on a common social platform. I fear that with the feelings of bitterness and animosity, often exacerbated by useless engenders, we might degenerate into savages, before we became aware of it.

The London papers are vocal on the subject of the treaty; and the inference from their tone is strong that it had actually been ratified, or was on the point of being so.—
There is, moreover, a rumor brought by the passengers, that the ratification had already taken place, and that the messenger who carried out the treaty would return with the necessary documents by the Great Western.

PANGBORN & BRINSMAID,

she medicines known.

SHERMAN'S CAMPHOR LOZENGES are real authore to headache, palpitation, sea-sickness, low-ness of spirits and de-pondency—or the elects of dissipation. Capt. Chadwick of the Wellington, Mr.

Ackermas, the great sign painter, Mayor Clark, and almost every bodys knows their value. POOR MAN'S PLASTER—Sherman's we mean co-is 12½ cents, and is certain to core rheumatism, lumbago, pain or weakness in the breast, side or back, also piles—and they cure worms when applied to the part. Ask Joe Hoxie, or any one who has used it, and would give $5 for one sconer than five cents for all other plasters.

SORE KIPPLES—Positively cured by Sherman's Pamillary Oil, without taking the child from the breast.
